Premium fashion since 1882

The company runs the eponymous large fashion store in Stuttgart city centre. Its roots go back to 1882. koelble & brunotte offers selected fashion collections for women and men from well-known designers and top international labels as well as fragrances, cosmetics and accessories in its store and online shop. Other hallmarks of the business include the expert advice provided by staff and its own studio, where garments are produced, tailored and altered.

Mr Marco Mangold, who will remain at the helm of the business going forward, said, "I am delighted that we have found such a good solution and that our presence in Stuttgart will be maintained. I am confident that our customers will quickly accept the new location, as it is very central, like they are used to, but still has good parking."

Effective 1 June 2024, the Local Court of Stuttgart opened the insolvency proceedings and appointed Mr Ilkin Bananyarli from PLUTA Rechtsanwalts GmbH as administrator. He had already been involved as provisional insolvency administrator since mid-March 2024.
