PLUTA attorney Ivo-Meinert Willrodt welcomes unanimous approval of MARO insolvency plan

11 March 2025 · Munich · Business Area: Insolvency Administration

Insolvency administrator Mr Ivo-Meinert Willrodt from PLUTA Rechtsanwalts GmbH has welcomed the progress in the MARO insolvency proceedings, with creditors having unanimously approved the insolvency plan presented at today's voting meeting at the Local Court of Munich. Once the court issues its final confirmation, a crucial step in the proceedings will have been completed."

PLUTA restructuring expert Mr Willrodt said, "The insolvency plan has become possible thanks to the support of numerous stakeholders and lays the foundations for MARO 2.0, which will be solidly financed through rental income and can look to the future with confidence. It will retain all occupied properties in its portfolio, and residents can continue to live in their apartments. Our joint efforts over the past 12 months or so have paid off." Now that the creditors' assembly has approved the insolvency plan, MARO will again be able to act independently once the proceedings are terminated.

A successful insolvency plan and restructuring solution for a co-operative is unique. Mr Willrodt said, "An insolvency plan is not commonly used, but has many advantages in terms of preserving the legal entity. As far as I am aware,
