Restructuring during ongoing business operations: Caritasverband für das Dekanat Bocholt e.V. initiates debtor-in-possession proceedings

21 November 2025 · Münster · Business Area: Insolvency Administration

Caritasverband für das Dekanat Bocholt e.V. ('CV Bocholt' for short) filed for provisional debtor-in-possession proceedings yesterday with the Local Court of Münster (as the competent court), which has already approved the application. During these proceedings, the association's president will retain operational responsibility and all authority to act and issue instructions.

CV Bocholt is taking this approach because of the situation facing it and other independent welfare organisations – the cost rates agreed with municipalities, the state, the federal government and health insurers are not rising at the same pace or to the same extent as costs. While necessary restructuring steps have already been initiated and completed in some cases in recent months, it has not been possible to implement all the changes at the required speed.

The aim now is to overcome the present crisis as a debtor in possession and ensure the association's long-term survival in the interests of staff, customers, suppliers and creditors. "The debtor-in-possession proceedings create an important opportunity for us. Having carefully reviewed all of the options, these are the best way for us to successfully deal with the situation in which we find ourselves,” said president Ms Claudia Soggeberg. She emphasised that CV Bocholt’s facilities are still operating during the proceedings and that people can continue to avail of the association’s services and offerings.

She is being supported by attorney Mr Markus Freitag, a turnaround expert from Bocholt and partner at AndresPartner, a restructuring law firm operating on a supraregional scale. He and his team have already successfully assisted a multitude of entities with their restructuring processes. “The debtor-in-possession proceedings give us an opportunity to quickly implement the necessary restructuring measures within a proven legal framework while the association continues to operate,” said restructuring agent Mr Markus Freitag. Over the coming weeks and months, he will help the association to set out in concrete terms the plans already drawn up and to review and action additional opportunities for restructuring. Attorney Dr Ria Brüninghoff from PLUTA Rechtsanwalts GmbH will also support these efforts with immediate effect. As the court-appointed provisional insolvency monitor, she will provide constructive assistance to the association board during the proceedings and protect the interests of the creditors.

CV Bocholt’s 904 employees (41 of whom are trainees) were given detailed information today about the present situation and the next steps. The employees’ wages and salaries are secure – for a three-month period, they will receive specific substitute benefits provided by the
