PLUTA Paderborn now close to railway station

31 August 2020 · Paderborn, Germany

PLUTA's Paderborn branch is relocating. From 1 September 2020, it will be centrally located at Bahnhofstr. 31b, 33102 Paderborn. The PLUTA team will work from the fourth floor of the new office building.

Thanks to this convenient location close to Paderborn's main railway station, the restructuring experts and attorneys will now be easily accessible to business partners. PLUTA has had a branch in the city for several years. The telephone and fax numbers will remain the same.

PLUTA managing director Mr Steffen Meyer, who also heads up the Paderborn branch, is pleased with the move: "The new offices are modern, bright and spacious. At the same time, our central location close to the railway station means that we will now be ideally situated for transport links." The PLUTA team in Paderborn is currently involved in proceedings relating to a number of businesses, including insolvency monitoring for Serisoft GmbH, whose creditors recently unanimously approved an insolvency plan. This marks the successful completion of the restructuring of the Paderborn-based software company.
